Начало урока	Greet the learners: Speech drill. "Hello!"/"Good afternoon!" “What`s your name? How are you?” Where are you from?/ How old are you?/What date is it today?/What day of the week is it today?/What can you do?
Середина урока	T-S:Teacher introduces demonstrative pronouns by video Worm up activity • Hold a book in your hand and ask the whole class: What is this? Place stress on “this”. • The students might give a one word answer, “book”. Ask the students to answer in a complete sentence: This is a book. • Point out to the object placed far (Example: a table, chair, wall, fan) and ask: What is that? Place stress on “that”. Tell the students to answer in a sentence. • Ask the students: if someone or something is placed close to your, which word used to point out to it; this or that? If someone or something is placed at a distance from you, which word is used to point to it; this or that? • You can also help students understand the use of demonstrative pronouns by using simple line drawings. For example. 1. This is my book. 2. that is my book. 3. These are my books. 4. Those are your books Development Activity 1 • Write 5 sentences on the board. • Ask the students to choose one demonstrative pronoun from the brackets to complete each sentence. • Help the students understand the meaning of each sentence. • The sentence will give them clues as to which demonstrative pronoun is to be used. . Group work: I’ll give cards to the groups they will fill demonstrative pronouns in a group in their copybooks. I group : Circle the correct words. II group: Complete the sentences with this, these, it or they III group : Complete the sentences with this, these, it or they
